Savannah's recorded history begins in 1733.	Oglethorpe live (green screen over river scene)
That's the year I, General James Oglethorpe and the 120 passengers of the good ship "Anne" landed on a bluff high along the Savannah River in February.	Ship-Anne.jpg (video 1) moving left over river.avi (video2)
I named the 13th and final American colony "Georgia" after King George II of England. Savannah became its first city.	King-George.jpg (zoom in FX)
My plan was to offer a new start for England's working poor, and to strengthen the colonies by increasing trade.	town.jpg (zoom in FX)
The colony of Georgia was also chartered as a buffer zone for South Carolina, protecting it from the advance of the Spanish in Florida.	Ga-map.jpg (zoom out FX)
Savannah is known as America's first planned city. I laid the city out in a series of grids that allowed for wide open streets intertwined with shady public squares and parks	Oglethorpe live (green screen over river scene) that served as town meeting places and centers of business.	map (Pan & Zoom)
Of my 24 original squares; 21 are still in existence.	Skyline With credits
